JND Recognized for Fourth Consecutive Year in National Law Journal Hall of Fame

SEATTLE – March 13, 2025 – JND Legal Administration (JND), the U.S. leader in legal management and administration services, has again been named Best Class Action Claims Administrator in The National Law Journal’s Hall of Fame as a part of its 14th annual ‘Best Of’ supplement. This marks the fourth consecutive year that JND has received the Hall of Fame Award.

JND was founded by Jennifer Keough, Neil Zola and David Isaac in 2016 and was named #1 Class Action Claims Administrator in the country by the National Law Journal in its very first year of operation. The company now staffs more than 300 employees across four offices, offering industry-leading class action settlement administration, eDiscovery and litigation support, incident response, and legal notice services. Routinely selected by attorneys on both sides of the aisle as well as by government agencies and Fortune 500 companies to handle large and complex class action administrations, JND is the settlement administrator for the $2.67 billion Blue Cross Blue Shield Antitrust Settlement, the $1.3 billion Equifax Data Breach Settlement, the largest data breach settlement in history, and the $1 billion Realtors Antitrust Settlements among hundreds of other recent matters.

“We are honored to be included in the NLJ’s Hall of Fame for the fourth straight year,” says Jennifer Keough, CEO of JND. “We thank our clients for their continued trust and confidence in JND’s team to handle their most complex matters.”

Every year since its founding, JND has received the top honor from a leading legal publication. In addition to the National Law Journal, JND has also achieved top rankings in other ALM Media-administered regional programs, including Best of the Midwest, Best of New York Law Journal, Best of New Jersey Law Journal and Best of Texas Lawyer, for providing exceptional legal management and class action administration services.
