JND’s unrivaled performance standards, accessibility and attention to each client’s unique needs has earned the confidence of attorneys on both sides of the aisle, government agencies and Fortune 500 companies. The combined experience and track record of the company’s founders have resulted in JND handling the administration of some of the largest and most complex settlements in history such as the $2.67 billion Blue Cross Blue Shield Antitrust Settlement and the landmark Equifax Data Breach Settlement.

New World Report’s annual Legal Elite showcases attorneys and legal organizations that make customer satisfaction a top priority, recognizing those that have built a track record of excellence and innovation in the increasingly complex legal industry. New World Report selects its Legal Elite after a panel of impartial researchers conduct rigorous assessments of all nominees. Criteria considered includes client dedication, innovation, business growth, customer feedback and business performance.
